

Happy New Year!

The Centre for Sustainable Transportation wishes you continued happiness, health, and sustainability in 2009.

We are excited to move closer to our set goal of achieving sustainable transportation by 2035 and to aid you in meeting your transportation resolutions for this new year.

CST's 2009 New Year's Resolutions:

1. To advance Sustainable Transportation through partnerships, applied research, and project development.
2. To maintain communication and coordination with transportation sectors, regulating bodies, and the public.
3. To collaborate with CST members.
4. To continue working to meet the Centre's Vision for 2035.
